

2023 Alan J. Gebhart Prize Application
Excellence in Peripheral Nerve Research

Please send the completed application and candidate CV as a single PDF to info@pnsociety.com by 1 April 2023. If self-nominated, the candidate should identify two nominators. Applicants must be members of the PNS in good financial standing for a minimum of two years.

Candidate Name (self-nomination is permitted): _____

Academic Title(s): _____

Email Address: _____

Work Address: _____

Nominator #1 Name: _____

Nominator #2 Name: _____

Email Address: _____

Email Address: _____

Work Address: _____

Work Address: _____

Applications should include the following materials (check if included):

___ Completed application form

___ Candidate's up to date curriculum vitae with the 10 most relevant papers to the prize

PLEASE NOTE: Upon receipt of the application and CV, the PNS will contact both nominators by email to request letters of recommendation summarizing the candidate's body of work, including:

1. Relevant background material,
2. Research accomplishments placed in context and assessment of the direct or indirect impact of contributions to the understanding of PNS diseases OR describing the focus of the candidate's research program relevant to the prize,
3. Candidate's independent contributions in the field of peripheral nerve research, and reasons why the candidate should receive the award.